

CONTENTS.

Engravings.

	Drawn by	Page
On the Road to Dinner	Adelaide Claxton.	Frontispiece
A Critical Moment	G. Du Maurier	202
A Dialogue in the Conservatory	T. R. Lamont	275
A Legend of St. Valentine	M. Ellen Edwards	126
A Maid of Athens	408
A New Phase of the Old Story	Rosa Jackson	385
Between the Lights	Lois Mearns	535
Burnt Cork	Adelaide Claxton	328
Captain Bob's Farewell to his Sword	Florence Claxton	379, 381, 384
Colebs in Search of a Mulready Envelope	G. Du Maurier	38
Cupid preparing for St. Valentine's Day	Adelaide Claxton	97
Derby Day Characters—The Road and the Race	S. Metville	480
Fellows of Learned Societies	Charles H. Bennett	547-556
Fireside Frolics	J. G. Thomson	7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13
Harriet's Advice to a Brother	Fane Wood	239
Honours of the Shrievalty	W. S. Gilbert	410, 411, 412, 413, 414
How the Piffers lost their Return Match	G. Du Maurier	428, 430
I am spell-bound by the sight of Laura Matilda	G. Du Maurier	29
In the Witness Box :—	W. Bruntton
The Respectable Married Witness	297
The Dull Witness	298
The Confident Witness	299
The Witness who is frightened into doubting his own handwriting	300
The Deaf Witness	301
The Knowing Witness	301
The Witness who introduces foreign matter into her evidence	302
The Interesting Witness	302
June Promenaders	M. A. Boyd	512
Margaret at the Piano	T. R. Lamont	353
Margaret Owenson as Sick Nurse	T. R. Lamont	365
Mummers and Drolls :—
La Ballerina—Coviello—Pantalone—Harlequino	204
Pagliaccio—Scaramuccia—Il Capitan—Colombine	205
Grimaldi's 'Bold Dragoon'	208
Grimaldi's Set-to in the Pantomime of 'Harlequin and Asmodeus'	209
Pulcinella—Scapino	210
Old-fashioned Winters	W. Bruntton	1, 4, 5
Our Brilliant Failure	G. Du Maurier	481, 488
Our Widowed Queen	Emily Osborne	47

List of Engravings—continued:		Drawn by	Page
Reflections in Rotten Row		Harrison Weir	406
Scenes in Court		W. Bruntton	14, 101
'She points rather knowingly to the card on the table'		Florence Clarion	57
Sir Josiah Child, Bart.			257
'That very long half-hour after dinner'		M. Ellen Edwards	72
The Coxswain's Song		A. W. Cooper	320
The Duel		G. Du Maurier	296
The Farewell Valentine		Arthur Hughes	181
The Ingenuous Wobbler		G. Du Maurier	289
The Lady in Muslin	T. R. Lamont	111, 116, 121, 279, 285, 432, 434,	445
The Little Moment before the Introduction		G. Du Maurier	497
The Mystery of the Bloody Hand		J. A. Pasquier	42, 174
The Old East India House (1648—1726)			265
The Queens of Comedy:—
No. I.—Dorian			352
The Valentines for No. 20		A. W. Cooper	193
Try a Tutorship		G. Du Maurier	193
'What Man ever stood firm before a beautiful Woman's Tears?'		T. R. Lamont	359
'Will you give me my Valentine at last, and let me go?'		James Gochin	146
William Paterson, Founder of the Bank of England			449

Tales.

	Page		Page
A Farewell Valentine	181	The Lady in Muslin—continued:
A Fast Run and a Double Kill. A		Chap. IV. The Lady at the Railway
Tale of the Field and the Drawing-		Station	120
room	71	V. The Cottage that wouldn't
A New Phase of the Old Story	385	Let, let at last	122
'Between the Lights':—		VI. How I won the Race	272
Chap. I. Twilight and Jack Mor-		VII. Fishing in the Boundary
timer	535	Stream	275
II. What is the Plot	537	VIII. Margaret Owenson	279
III. In Search of Society	540	IX. An Arm with a Golden
IV. Between the Lights	543	Bracelet	282
Cælebs in Search of a Mulready En-		X. Margaret's Treasures	353
velope—A Liverpool Romance, in		XI. A Quiet Talk	355
Three Chapters	29	XII. Some one in the Boundary
Cox and Five. A Tale of the Oar		Stream	361
and the Cricket-Field	304	XIII. Margaret Owenson as Sick
Held Asunder:—		Nurse	364
Chap. I. The Sempitern Ball	560	XIV. A Little Old Lady	431
II. Lee Phillips's Story	564	XV. Who she is!!	436
III. The Turning-Point	566	XVI. Marie's Story	439
In the Streets:—		XVII. An Invitation on Christ-
A London Reverie	557	mas Eve	441
Our Brilliant Failure. A Sketch in		XVIII. Restitution	443
Ultramarine	481	The Mystery of the Bloody Hand. A
The Colonel's Valentine and its Fate		New Year's Story:—
139		Chap. I. A Memorable New Year's
The Ingenuous Wobbler. A Story		Day	42
with a Moral for Bachelors	289	II. The Terrible June	45
The Lady in Muslin:—		III. The Time of Trial	168
Chap. I. In which Richard Gaunt		IV. Drifting to the End	170
declares himself Unrom-		V. Between two Worlds	173
antic	110	The Valentines for No. 20	97
II. Dick's Juvenile Corre-		Try a Tutorship	198
spondent	113	Why the Puffers lost their Return Match	425
III. Cigar Confidences	118

Contents.

v

Sketches.

	Page		Page
A Bachelor on Bachelorhood	416	Scenes in Court:—
A Miss in her Teens Keeping House..	215	Chap. I.	14
An Excursion Extraordinary; or, a		II.	161
Bird's-eye View of Africa	459	Sitting on a Rout Seat	189
Eastward Ho! or, The Adventures of		Social Sketches. By Jack Easel,
Dick Dewbury in Search of a Sine-		Esquire:—
cure	370	Chap. I. A Fashionable Neigh-
Fellows	547	bourhood	63
Fireside Frolics—Unbending the Bow	7	II. The Conventionalities of
Honours of the Shrievalty	410	Life	147
Human Pickles	506	Souvenirs of a Man of Fashion ..	401
In the Witness Box	297	The Derby Foretold	475
London Shadows:—		The Greek Ambassador: A Ball-room
No. I. Bread made out of River		Scene at Transmarina	253
Drift	347	The Merchant Princes of England:—
II. The Police Station Notice-		Chap. x. Josiah Child, of London	256
Board	513	XI. Edward Colston, of Bristol	268
On Men and Women as Letter-Writing		XII. XIII. William Paterson,
Animals	397	Founder of the Bank
On the Road to Dinner	529	of England	449, 518

Miscellaneous Papers.

Curiosities of Fashion:—In the Mat-		Oxford and Cambridge Men by Land
ter of Love Letters	339	and Water	466
Custom as it affects Dinner-time ..	48	Politeness—Insular and Continental—
Drawing-room Poetry—Filigree Philo-		Dinnering	129
sophy	240	After Dinnering	329
Flowers and Foreign Flower-Fashions	489	Recollections of the First University
How we saw Cherbourg	389	Boat Race (1829)	317
Letters from a Country Curate on		The American Marriage Market ..	309
Dreams	234	The Ethics of Love Affairs	224
Mummers and Drolls	204	The Introductory Process. A Social
Muscular Society:—		Dialogue	495
No. I. Fencing and Gymnastics ..	322	The Morality of Card Playing. By
Old-fashioned Winters	1	'Cavendish'	313
On Furnishing	500	Whist. By 'Cavendish'	57

Poetry.

A Ball-room Reminiscence	179	May the First. An Academy Day
A Day Dream	178	Dream'	447
A Maid of Athens	408	Our Widowed Queen	47
Burnt Cork. An Acted Charade ..	328	Reflections in Rotten Row; or, Calcu-
Captain Bob's Farewell to his Sword	379	lation at a Canter	406
Harriet's Advice to a Brother ..	229	The Black Shepherd—A Legend of Horatian Ode, dedicated to the Queens		St. Valentine	126
of Comedy	352	The Coxswain's Song	320
June Promenaders	512	The May Examination	533
Love Sickness—An Oirish Malady ..	312	Tu Quoque	146
March Musings	287	The Race of the Blues	474
May Musings	457		